

PRESENTATION AND RULES OF PARTICIPATION

The requests for membership must be in line with the requirements of the attached release. The demands for participation received within 30 September 2021, will be published in the W.A.D.&community Database within 31 December 2021. From 2022 onward the scientific committee will reunited for decision making twice per year. Therefore the requests must be sent within every 30 January or every 30 June to be accepted by the commission and eventually have the registration published on the Database. The application for registration is open because it is a project in progress.

How to participate

Participation is free. The project is open only to adult women. All documents must be sent at the following mail address: wad@windmillart.it. It is required to fill up the release, to sign it (autograph signature) and to scan it (pdf or jpg). Should the release not follow the above indications the application for membership will be rejected.

To realize the profile of the artist, the WindMill Association kindly demands to all those artists who know the Italian language to send all documents in both Italian and English language. In the case the artist does not know the Italian language the documents can be submitted in English only. The reason of that is to reduce the bulk of work made by the Association since it is totally unrewarded.

The documentation required is the following:

- Copy of a Document (Passport or Identity Card)
- Biography written using the first person
- Curriculum Vitae
- Release signed by the artist
- Website address of the artist (in case it is already active)
- One picture of the artist
- Five pictures of artistic works
- Each of the five pictures must have a caption that complies with this order:
 - 1) Title of the art work
 - 2) Name of the Artist and/or Art name
 - 3) Year of realization
 - 4) Size of the work
 - 5) Technique and materials used

IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT:

- Every text must be written in Arial 12 Character
- Files must not exceed 2 Mb
- Documents are mailed to the following address: wad@windmillart.it

For the submitters it is important to understand that all the above is essential to have the application approved. Should any of these requirements missing or not responding to the above specifications the application will be rejected.
